

PERFORMER HOST

ANDREW GILL

MC INTERVIEWER

A master communicator, Andrew Gill is renowned for his energy, intelligence, quick wit and ability to read an audience.

As Facilitator, Host or MC, Andrew captivates, charms and engages to deliver sensational results for his clients.

Able to pitch his performance to any brief, Andrew can be restrained and formal or high energy and hilarious!

An experienced performer, he also contributes new ways to surprise, entertain and maximise message impact.

A BIT ABOUT ANDREW, AND SOME COMMENTS FROM OTHERS...

Having spent his formative years as a performer, Andrew learned from the ground-up how people respond in different situations. Part of his success comes down to his ability to communicate and connect with people from all walks of life. When you watch Andrew at work, it's clear that he loves what he does. He has performed and hosted throughout Australia, Hong Kong, Japan, United States and Indonesia.

Over the past 15 years, Andrew has expanded his repertoire to include large scale event production and direction, along with strategic communications, experiential marketing and video production for companies such as TAC, Dulux, Siemens and Mars.

This impressive combination of skills makes Andrew a truly valuable contributor to any event. He takes a genuine interest in the event, typically going above and beyond the role he's been booked for.

"Andrew Gill! A beautiful blend of funny, warm, competent and totally reliable. Whether it is 3 or 3,000 in your audience, you can rely on Andrew to deliver what is needed."

Jane Sydenham-Clarke,
Marketing and Program Manager Federation Square

"Few in the field bring the experience, perspective and energy to an occasion that Andrew does...or the flair and personality!"

Graeme Lahman
Founder Australian Business Theatre

"I wanted to thank you profusely...It was going to be a very difficult event to hold together and give a sense of cohesion but you managed it so well that no one would be the wiser. You handled political divisions and potentially fractious groups with ease and kept the room engaged and cohesive."

Carla Wilshire
CEO Immigration Council

MC INTERVIEWER

Andrew has extensive experience working with clients on Gala Award Dinners, Conferences, Product Launches, Media Launches, Training and Professional Development events, Team Building and Audience Warm-Ups.

*"He's the ultimate professional - he lights up the room...
...He actually listens to what people say in an interview and he has no ego."*

Kerrie Spaargaren
Director, Grafitti

"...He was also very good backstage and onstage with our official guests and VIPs. He is very good at what he does, well prepared and puts in 100%...he understands how much work goes into getting an event up and how important his role is on the day."

Chris Reidy Manager,
Department of Health & Human Services

"Andrew has an energy that lifts up the crowd and can turn a simple event into one that you and your guests will never forget... he can adapt to any situation and is always willing to go above and beyond."
